15.2 The Claiming Party shall not be deemed to be in breach of this agreement or otherwise liable to the other party (the "Non-Claiming Party") for any delay in performance or any non-performance of any obligations under this agreement (and the time for performance shall be extended accordingly) if and to the extent that the delay or non-performance is due to an Event of Force Majeure provided that:

(a) the Claiming Party could not have avoided the effect of the Event of Force Majeure by taking precautions which, having regard to all matters known to it before the occurrence of the Event of Force Majeure and all relevant factors, it ought reasonably to have taken but did not take; and

(b) the Claiming Party has used reasonable endeavours to mitigate the effect of the Event of Force Majeure and to carry out its obligations under this agreement in any other way that is reasonably practicable.

15.3 The Claiming Party shall promptly notify the Non-Claiming Party of the nature and extent of the circumstances giving rise to the Event of Force Majeure.

15.4 If the Event of Force Majeure in question prevails for a continuous period in excess of two months after the date on which it began, the Non-Claiming Party may give notice to the Claiming Party terminating this agreement. The notice to terminate must specify the termination date, which must be not less than 20 Business Days after the date on which the notice to terminate is given. Once a notice to terminate has been validly given, this agreement will terminate on the termination date set out in the notice. 16.2 In addition, Buyer shall not directly or indirectly make any offer or promise to improperly influence any agent, government official, political party or candidate for office in order to obtain or retain business or gain an inappropriate advantage.

17. WAIVER. A waiver of any term, provision or condition of these T&C shall be effective only if given in writing and signed by the waiving party and then only in the instance and for the purpose for which it is given.

17.1 No failure or delay on the part of any party in exercising any right, power or privilege under these T&C shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right, power or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

17.2 No breach of any provision of these T&C shall be waived or discharged except with the express written consent of the parties.

18. SEVERABILITY.

If any provision in this agreement shall be held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, in whole or in part, under any applicable law, that provision shall be deemed not to form part of this agreement, and the legality, validity or enforceability of the remainder of this agreement shall not be affected.

18.1 If such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision affects the entire nature of this agreement, each party shall use its reasonable best efforts to immediately negotiate in good faith a valid replacement provision.

19. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION.

These T&C (and any dispute, controversy, proceedings or claim of whatever nature arising out of or in any way relating to this agreement or its formation) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with Turkish law.
